

Please do not pass policies, laws, are statutes, which will provide avenue for further consolidation of media under fewer owners. It amazes me that this process is rolling down a hill with little effort of ceasing. Please someone, stop and breathe just for a moment - which should provide enough time for that obvious to lift its head. This will give way to a similar control of media under Communist Rules. America is losing its way - FAST. This is not complicate, nor does it require farsight. It is clear what will happen if the possibility exist; usually the expected, moreover, the intended. Just because we have a simple-minded President, does not mean we have to act as simple people. Remember, Presidential terms are limited - please let keep ourselves in a position to save one self after this dark-time has passed.
